Automated Decision-Making: Some of our services may rely on technology that makes automated decisions or that otherwise conducts profiling based on criteria we determine to be relevant (such as whether you are legally permitted to enter into a contract with us or to create profiles about you). We routinely test our software to assess the accuracy and relevance of these decisions. However, they could have significant effects for you – such as stopping you from entering into a contract with you or receiving certain products from us, if we determine it is likely that doing so would cause us to violate our legal or regulatory requirements or would otherwise adversely impact our legitimate business interests.

3. Data We Obtain from Third Party Sources

We also obtain from third-parties the same categories of Personal Data described in the Data You Provide and the Data Collected Automatically sections, which we use for the purposes and under the legal bases described in those sections and as otherwise described below in this section. In some cases, we obtain your consent for additional uses, where we unambiguously request such consent.

Business Partners and Service Providers: We use business partners and service providers to perform services on our behalf, and some of these parties provide us Personal Data about you that we do not otherwise have (for example, where you sign up directly with that provider) and share some or all this information with us. - Survey and Form Providers: We collect Personal Data (including contact information, professional details, product interest information, survey responses, user generated content and log files) from business partners and service providers who create our electronic forms and facilitate our surveys (for example, Wufoo, JotForm, Adobe, Confrimit, and SurveyMonkey).

Publicly Available Sources: We collect Personal Data about you that we do not otherwise have (including contact information, professional details and product interest information) from social media platforms (for example, Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, LinkedIn and YouTube), blogs (for example, WordPress), and other publicly available databases.

We intend to keep Personal Data about you accurate and up-to-date. Please notify us of any changes when they occur (such as a change of address or marital status). From time to time, we may ask you to submit updated Personal Data to ensure our records are up-to-date.

We will retain Personal Data about you for as long as is necessary for the purposes set out in these Disclosures unless a longer period is required under applicable law or is needed to resolve disputes or protect our legal rights. The criteria used to determine the period for which Personal Data about you will be stored varies depending on the legal basis under which we process such Personal Data, but will include how long Personal Data is required for the purposes of processing, our legal and regulatory obligations, the amount, nature and sensitivity of such Personal Data, the purposes for processing and whether we can achieve those purposes through other means, and the establishment and defense of legal claims in the country where you or we are based:

|------------------------------|--|

| Contractual Necessity | For the duration of the contract plus some additional limited period of time that is necessary to comply with law or that represents the statute of limitations for legal claims that could arise from the contractual relationship. |
| Legal Compliance      | For the period of time required or that is reasonably necessary to comply with the legal or regulatory obligation.   |

|------------------------|---|
| Vital Interests | For the period of time necessary to protect the vital interests of an individual. |
|------------------------|---|

We may face threat of legal claim and in that case, we may need to apply a “legal hold” that retains information beyond our typical retention period. In that case, we will retain the information until the hold is removed, which typically means the claim or threat of claim has been resolved.
