California Privacy Rights

1. Privacy Rights – Under the CCPA, California residents may have certain privacy rights, including the rights to: (i) request additional disclosures about the Personal Data we collect, use, and disclose, i.e., a “Request to Know (Categories of Information)”;

(ii) obtain a copy of Personal Data, i.e., a “Request to Know (Specific Pieces of Information),” sometimes called the Right to Access;

(iii) request deletion of Personal Data, i.e., a “Request to Delete Information,” sometimes called the Right to Be Forgotten; and

(iv) opt out of the sale of Personal Data, i.e., a “Request to Opt Out,” (collectively the “Data Subject Rights Requests”). We do not sell your Personal Data, and so you are already opted-out of such sales. In addition to the above, you have the right not to be discriminated against for exercising any Data Subject Rights Requests.

2. How to Exercise Privacy Rights – If you wish to exercise any of these rights please email Data_Privacy@waters.com. The rights described herein are not absolute and we reserve all of our rights available to us at law in this regard. Additionally, if we retain your Personal Data only in de-identified form, we will not attempt to re-identify your data in response to a Data Subject Rights request.

We do not discriminate against you, for example, by charging you a different price or offering a different level of service, for exercising any of these rights.

If you make a request related to Personal Data about you, we will need to verify your identity. To do so, we will request that you match specific pieces of information you have provided us previously, as well as, in some instances, provide a signed declaration under penalty of perjury that you are the individual whose Personal Data is the subject of the request. If it is necessary to collect additional information from you, we will use the information only for verification purposes and will delete it as soon as practicable after complying with the request. For requests related to particularly sensitive information (e.g., protected classification characteristics), we may require additional proof of identification. If you make a request through an authorized agent, we will require written proof that the agent is authorized to act on your behalf. We will process your request within the time provided by applicable law.

3. Additional Privacy Rights for California Residents (California Shine the Light) –

If you are a California resident, California Civil Code Section 1798.83 permits you to request information about our practices related to the disclosure of your Personal Data to certain third parties for their direct marketing purposes. You may be able to opt-out of our sharing of your Personal Data with unaffiliated third parties for the third parties' direct marketing purposes in certain circumstances. Please send your request (along with your full name, email address, postal address, and the subject line labeled "Your California Privacy Rights") by email at Data_Privacy@waters.com.

Updates to CCPA Disclosures

These CCPA Disclosures will be revised as required. If we decide to change these CCPA Disclosures, we will post notice of the changes on our Services. The updated Disclosures are effective as of the Effective Date and you can determine when these Disclosures were last revised by checking the Last Updated date, both of which are listed at the start of these Disclosures.
